Despite an improvement in recent years, there remains a shortage of women pursuing careers in engineering. At CUHK Engineering, female students represent about 30% of the student pool, but they shine in many sectors.